

As a consumer, I support the petition filed by the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates requiring telephone companies to include all non-regulatory fees in their telephone rates. When looking at advertised telephone rates, the true cost is not known because of all the hidden fees tacked on to the published rates. These fees are part of the cost of doing business and should be included in the basic telephone rates.